SENIORS WEEK GRANTS NOW ON OFFER

Although Seniors Week is still five months away, Port Macquarie-Hastings Council is encouraging seniors to apply for a grant to help commemorate the week.

Council has allocated $2,000 for grants to non-profit community based organisations to assist with the development of activities or events to celebrate Seniors Week in our local community. Seniors Week will run from 20th - 27th March 2011.

The theme for the grants is 'Live Life' and successful applicants will need to propose an activity or project with an intergenerational theme which needs to include seniors as well as young people."

Grants for amounts of $250 to $500 may be submitted. The amount of available funding will be distributed as follows: Port Macquarie $1000; Wauchope area $500; and Camden Haven area $500.

Applications open on Friday 22nd October and close 4.30pm Monday 22nd November 2010.

Application forms can be obtained from Council offices and libraries or by calling Council's Community Development Officer - Aged & Disability, on 6581 8480.
